

Bethany Birches Camp

Overnight Wedding Package

Background:

The Green Mountains of Vermont provide an ideal setting for your wedding. Bethany Birches Camp sits in the Green Mountains at 2000' above sea level with a wonderful view. The new pavilion and camp headquarters provide plenty of space for large groups. And it's beautiful! With a custom timber frame constructed by Vermont Frames and a traditional rustic appeal it's the ideal spot for a wedding ceremony, reception or any related event. The commercial kitchen can be used to prepare your own food or for your caterer to do their work. Bride and Groom and wedding parties can spend the weekend at camp; stay in the Bethany Birches Cabin, in Dale's Lodge or at nearby Salt Ash Inn. If your friends and family would enjoy a real camping experience, they can set up tents or sleep in the camp shelters. Your day is very special. That's why many have chosen this special place for their wedding. Many have chosen to have a festive weekend here on Lynds Hill Road. Why not celebrate for more than one evening? You can host 100 of your family and friends for the whole weekend. A portion of your fee will support the children's camping program and the camp's mission.
